DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

1. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US Patent No.5520654 to Wahlberg.

Wahlberg teaches a metallic inner needle which pierces a skin and a soft outer needle, a holder sleeve 2 having a retracting mechanism which can hold the inner needle after a puncture, from proximal end, the retracting mechanism includes an urging means 22 for urging the inner needle e to a side opposite to the outer needle, an actuator 43 which moves together with the inner needle when it is withdrawn, the puncture position retainer has a puncture position engagement portion whereby the actuator is engaged with the holder sleeve at a position on an outer needle side.

2. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US Patent No.6537253 B1 to Haindl.

Haindl teaches a metallic inner needle which pierces a skin and a soft outer needle, a holder sleeve 7 having a retracting mechanism which can hold the inner
